

THE TROSSACHS TRAIL

Explore on foot...

by boat...

by bike

Taking Care of the Trossachs

- Enjoy your visit and help to keep the Trossachs special for everyone
- Keep to car parks and parking laybys, not roadsides, passing places or blocking gates
- Bin your litter or take it home
- Use the public toilets shown on this map

Follow the signs

Use the Trossachs Trail signs to guide you.

Scan code to visit website www.trossachstrail.co.uk

20 things to do on the Trossachs Trail

1 Visit Loch Katrine
Experience the loch on a cruise, stroll by the historic shore, cycle the loch-side path or stay in a luxury glamping pod.

2 Bag a Ben
Enjoy a hill walk and great views from a Trossachs Ben - choose from Ben Ledi, Ben Gullipen, Ben Venue, Ben A'an, or Ben Vorlich.

3 Explore Glen Finglas
Learn about the glen at the Gateway Visitor Centre, let your children explore the interactive play trail or head for the hills on foot or by bike.

4 Dramatic Waterfalls
Feel the power at Bracklinn or Leny Falls near Callander, Arklet Falls at Inversnaid or Little Fawn Falls at The Lodge Forest Visitor Centre.

5 Remember Rob Roy
Visit Balquhider Parish Church, resting place of legendary outlaw Rob Roy MacGregor, made famous by Sir Walter Scott.

6 Call in on Callander
Explore shops, cafes, restaurants and woodland or riverside walks in the gateway to the Highlands overlooked by the majestic Ben Ledi.

7 Spirit of the Trossachs
Taste the spirit of the Trossachs in a gin crafted by gin lovers and meet the team at McQueen Gin distillery shop near Callander.

8 Antique Road Trip
Browse antiques, art and collectables and enjoy lunch or afternoon tea in the café at the Scottish Antiques & Arts Centre near Doune.

9 Argaty Red Kites
Watch or photograph wild and majestic red kites, red squirrels and other wildlife in one of the hides at Argaty Red Kites, near Doune.

10 Doune Castle
Visit Doune's medieval castle, backdrop for films and TV programmes, like Outlander and Monty Python's Holy Grail.

11 Trossachs Highland Malt
Take a tour of Deanston Distillery in a 19th century cotton mill followed by tastings of their world-class Highland Single Malt.

12 Blair Drummond Safari
Enjoy a family day out at Blair Drummond Safari and Adventure Park, with wild and exotic animals and dinosaur playpark.

13 Family Fun at Briarlands
Play and family fun in the fresh air at Briarlands Farm - adventure, animals, farm tours, pick your own strawberries, soft play and café.

14 Wonderful Wetland
Stroll the boardwalk or climb the viewing tower at Flanders Moss National Nature Reserve to spot birds, animals, insects and plant life.

15 Inchmahome Priory
Island hop by ferry on the Lake of Menteth to explore the 12th century ruined priory where Mary Queen of Scots hid in 1547.

16 Follow the Fairies
Visit the Fairy Trail at Doon Hill, Aberfoyle, and follow with a coffee and cake and browsing in gift shops along Main Street.

17 Gravel Bike Adventure
Discover Gravelfoyle - a network of way-marked off-road gravel trails in the forest, that all start in Aberfoyle.

18 Play on the Water
Dive into Loch Ard on the water assault course at Go Country, sail to an island by kayak or canoe or swim in the clear water.

19 Get Active in the Forest
Zip slide above the trees, watch wildlife or explore forest paths at The Lodge Forest Visitor Centre in Queen Elizabeth Forest Park.

20 Three Lochs Forest Drive
Drive, walk or cycle the seven-mile forest loop around three lochs - Réidhte, Drunkie and Achray. Open for cars - March to October.

This panel has been created by Friends of Loch Lomond & The Trossachs with the Sir Walter Scott Steamship Trust and financial support from VisitScotland, Strathard and Callander Community Hydro Funds and Scotland Loves Local.

Support the Trossachs, become a member of independent conservation and heritage charity Friends of Loch Lomond & The Trossachs. Join at www.lomondrossachs.org.uk

